Dinner.

The glorious day, Mr. Smith invited his old friend Mr. Johnson to have a dinner together. They agreed to have a dinner in the evening.

Mrs. Smith started the preparations straight away. While she was cooking delicious food, her husband bought a salmon in order to amuse the guests.

Mrs. Smith was a fast woman, so she did her best and cooked the food for less than an hour. So, it was time to lay the table. Mr. Smith and Mrs. Smith painstakingly prepared everything and made the dining room conducive. Their cat was surprised to see this wonderful salmon, so he decided to keep tabs on it.

There was some time left and the family wore their best clothes and started making for the guests to come.

Mr. Johnson and his wife were punctual and came on time. People were on the cloud nine to finally see each other.

They came to the dining room and decided to start having a dinner. Mrs. Smith opened the salmon and screamed. Everyone was horrified. The salmon was eaten! The evening was fortunate only to the cat, who ate it.

Mr. Smith rushed out to the shop and bought the last cooked salmon. The dinner was saved and the guests were delighted.
